Health Snippet – Exercise: Brain

“The old adage “Use it or lose it” applies not only to our physical health but also to our cognitive health”

The brain is involved in everything we do and, like any other part of the body, it needs to be cared for too. Exercising the brain to improve memory, focus, or daily functionality is a top priority for many people, especially as they get older. That said, people of all ages can benefit too. >100 scientific papers show the benefits of Brain exercises.

Try the following exercises to sharpen your mental skills:

Test your recall: Make a list, memorize it, 1hr later recall it.

Let music play: Learn a musical instrument or join a choir.

Do math: Solve maths without pencil, paper, or computer.

Take a cooking class: Learn how to cook a new cuisine.

Learn a language: listening & hearing involves the brain.

Word pictures: chose a word, try words with same letters.

Draw a map: each time returning from visiting a place.

Test taste buds: when eating, identify ingredients in food.

Hand-eye coordination: knitting, drawing, painting, puzzle.

New sport: exercise that requires both mind and body.

Finally, visualizing a tranquil scene or location can boost your emotional well-being and calm you down mentally.

Brain Gym Exercises

Brain Buttons

Place one hand across your belly button and rub your brain buttons with the other hand. Now move your eyes left and right.

Cross Crawl

As you walk or march on the spot, touch your right knee with your left hand, then touch your left knee with your right hand.

Hook Ups

Cross your legs. Extend your arms, cross them over at your wrists, link up fingers and bring your hands upwards to your chest. Close your eyes, hold, and focus on your breathing.

Air Drawing

Pointing with both fingers, draw in the air, making sure right and left fingers are in symmetry with each other.

Unlocking Ears

Place your hands at the top of both your ears. Gently unroll your ears from the top to the bottom.

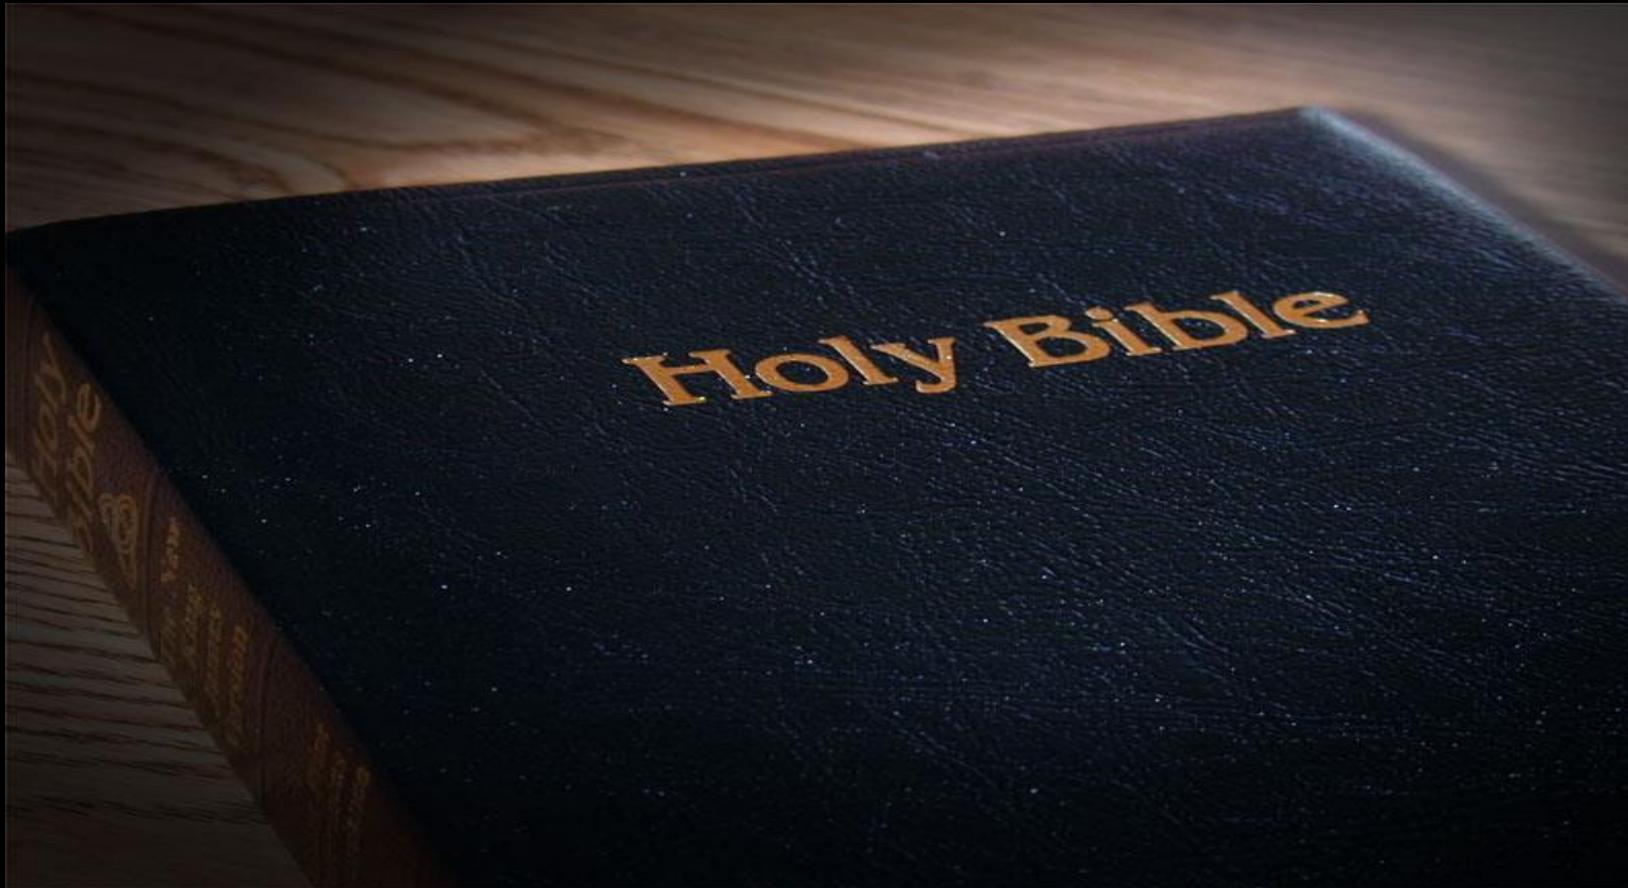

Figure Eights

Point your finger and draw huge figure eights sideways in the air. Make sure you cross over both sides of your body and take turns with both hands.

Preparing for the Coming Crisis

The Time Is At Hand

The Book of Daniel, along with the Book of Revelation, give a clear time-line of the nations that would rule the world and have a significant impact on God's people and His plan for the redemption of men's souls. Daniel Chapter 2 is the foundation of all end time prophesies. Together they give an unerring account of the history of the world from the ancient nation of Babylon to the second coming of our Lord. In them God's people are not only warned about the events that would affect them, but God calls us to a state of preparation as we see the prophetic events unfold.

The unfulfilled predictions of the book of Revelation are soon to be fulfilled. This prophecy is now to be studied with diligence by the people of God and should be clearly understood. It does not conceal the truth; it clearly forewarns, telling us what will be in the future. (LDE 15.6)
The solemn messages that have been given in their order in the Revelation are to occupy the first place in the minds of God's people. (LDE 16.1)

The Time Is At Hand

Sister Ellen G. White, God's messenger to His remnant church, comments on the mixture of iron and miry clay, "...But statesmen will uphold the spurious Sabbath, and will mingle their religious faith with the observance of this child of the Papacy, placing it above the Sabbath which the Lord has sanctified and blessed, setting it apart for man to keep holy, as a sign between Him and His people to a thousand generations. The mingling of church craft and state craft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God's forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves..." (Manuscript Releases, Volume One, page 51)

The Time Is At Hand

In the eyes of groups like Adventists, Baptists and Evangelical sects, their regard and respect for democratic principles impose upon them the obligation—the religious, as well as the civil and political obligation—to defend every person's right to be wrong. Every person must have the right not only to believe in Hell of the Damned and Heaven of the Saved. Every person must literally be assured the right to choose Hell over Heaven. That obligation carried to that extreme not only sets the Minimalists apart from John Paul; it sets them against him, as well.

It sets them apart from the Holy Father, because democratic principles can never take precedence over divine revelation. No one can be forced to believe in Heaven or Hell, or to choose the one over the other. Nevertheless, it is axiomatic for John Paul that no one has the right—democratic or otherwise—to a moral wrong.

Ellen White continues...

Let the principle once be established in the United States that the church may employ or control the power of the state; that religious observances may be enforced by secular laws; in short, that the authority of church and state is to dominate the conscience, and the triumph of Rome in this country is assured..."

(The Great Controversy, pg 581)

The Time Is At Hand

The dignitaries of church and state will unite to bribe, persuade, or compel all classes to honor the Sunday. The lack of divine authority will be supplied by oppressive enactments. Political corruption is destroying love of justice and regard for truth; and even in free America, rulers and legislators, in order to secure public favor, will yield to the popular demand for a law enforcing Sunday observance. Liberty of conscience, which has cost so great a sacrifice, will no longer be respected. In the soon-coming conflict we shall see exemplified the prophet's words: "The dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." Revelation 12:17. (Pa 592)

"...He, {Pope Pius XI} has given the best of his singular ability to the supervision and direction of the Catholic campaign in America. For him, our country is a battlefield on which is being waged the greatest struggle of the church's history. The conquest of America is the supreme objective at which he aims...

Its millions of communicants, in every country on the globe, are instructed to hold themselves as bound in allegiance to the pope. Whatever their nationality or their government, they are to regard the authority of the church as above all other. When Protestantism shall stretch her hand across the gulf to grasp the hand of the Roman power, when she shall reach over the abyss to clasp hands with spiritualism, when, under the influence of this threefold union, our country shall repudiate every principle of its Constitution as a Protestant and republican government, and shall make provision for the propagation of papal falsehoods and delusions, then we may know that the time has come for the marvelous working of Satan and that the end is near...”

Seven Mountains

There has never been any difficulty in the mind of any enlightened Protestant in identifying the woman sitting on seven mountains and having on her forehead the name, "Mystery Babylon the Great," with the Roman apostasy. No other city in the world has ever been celebrated, as the city of Rome has, for its situation on seven hills.

Pagan poets and orators, who had not thought of elucidating prophecy, have alike characterized it as the 'Seven Hilled City'.

Ten Horns

Founded in 1968, the Club of Rome is responsible for today's United Europe. Its 1972 report, the Limits of Growth, served as blueprint for this gutsy new political, economic, and military union. Already the Club of Rome has divided the world into ten political-economic regions referred to as "kingdoms." Adopted by twenty-five countries at the second session of the World Constituent Assembly, the 1977 Constitution for the Federation of Earth proposes an administrative structure of twenty world electoral and administrative regions with ten mega-regions.

10 KINGDOMS

In this 1974 prototype, the Club of Rome has divided the world into 10 regional kingdoms which will replace all national boundaries when the New World Order is implemented. See Revelation 17:12-14.

The beginnings of the Crisis is here to stay

“God made the world in six days and rested on the seventh, sanctifying this day, and setting it apart from all others as holy to Himself, to be observed by His people throughout their generations. But the man of sin, exalting himself above God, sitting in the temple of God, and showing himself to be God, thought to change times and laws. This power, thinking to prove that it was not only equal to God, but above God, changed the rest day, placing the first day of the week where the seventh should be. And the Protestant world has taken this child of the papacy to be regarded as sacred. In the Word of God this is called her fornication [Rev. 14:8].--7BC 979 (1900).

The Spirits and the Sunday Law

Those who oppose the teachings of spiritualism are assailing, not men alone, but Satan and his angels. They have entered upon a contest against principalities and powers and wicked spirits in high places. Satan will not yield one inch of ground except as he is driven back by the power of heavenly messengers. The people of God should be able to meet him, as did our Saviour, with the words: "It is written." -- Mar 167.2

The Greatest want of the world is the want of men-men who will not be bought or sold, men who in their inmost souls are true and honest, men who do not fear to call sin by its right name, men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole, men who would stand for the right though the heavens fall.

Seventh-day Adventists have been chosen by God as a peculiar people, separate from the world. By the great cleaver of truth He has cut them out from the quarry of the world and brought them into connection with Himself. He has made them His representatives and has called them to be ambassadors for Him in the last work of salvation. 'On the tenth day of the seventh month you must deny yourselves and not do any work ... because, on this day, atonement will be made for you to cleanse you. Then, before the Lord, you will be clean from all your sins.' (29-30)

The Day of Atonement was the most solemn of all the feast days. It was the day of cleansing for the nation and for the sanctuary. On this day alone, once a year, the high priest entered into the holiest of all, the Holy of Holies in the temple, within the veil of the temple, with the blood of the Lord's goat, the sin offering. Here he sprinkled the blood on the mercy seat. The blood of the sin offering on the great Day of Atonement brought about the cleansing of all sin for the priesthood, the sanctuary, and Israel as a nation (Leviticus 16:29-34).

Everything is recorded in the books of heaven

- Some have secret sins but put up a holy appearance.
- The devil has created all the devices to distract people.
- Why does the devil hate the cleansing of the sanctuary.
- Genesis 3:15 – Enmity between thy seed (Satan) and her seed (Jesus).

Satan is desperate to disrupt God's plan

- So he thinks if he can achieve people not confessing and hold on to sins, then he can survive and not be crushed.
- Unless we bring our sins to Jesus he cannot cleanse the sanctuary (remove from the record books in heaven) – that is the delay right now.
- Psalms 24:3-5 – wash and cleanse hands (Eccl 9:10): need purify our hearts.

Understanding the Feast of Tabernacles

Significance of the Blood

It is a token of the New Covenant (Matthew 26:27-28; 1 Corinthians 11:25).

It gives eternal life (John 6:53-54).

It brings redemption (Ephesians 1:7).

It makes atonement (Romans 3:25; 1 John 2:2; 4:9-10).

It justifies before God (Romans 5:9).

It gives us forgiveness (Ephesians 1:7; 2:13; Colossians 1:14; 1 John 1:9).

It provides reconciliation (Colossians 1:19-20).

It provides cleansing (1 John 1:7).

It makes us overcomers (Revelation 12:11).

What Is The Feast Of Tabernacles?

Sukkot, usually translated as "Tabernacles," or the festival of "Booths," occurs for seven days, from Tishrei 15 to 21. There is therefore a quick transition from the high holidays, with their somber mood of repentance and judgment, to a holiday of rejoicing and celebration, for which the people are commanded to build a hut [sukkah; plural, sukkot] and make it their home. The Torah identifies the sukkah (booth) with the temporary dwellings in which the Israelites lived in the wilderness after they left Egypt on their way to the Promised Land (Leviticus 23:42)

Lessons from the Past: Genesis 13 – Choices

In Genesis 13, Abraham is faced with a test of faith. Should he trust God's word or trust in riches and human wisdom and wealth? He let's Lot make the decision for him, and Lot chooses the way of wealth and human wisdom.

1. Abram's Choices (Genesis 13:1-9)

- A. Finances or Family?
- B. Tight-fisted or Trust God?

2. Lot's Choices (Genesis 13:10-13)

- A. Wealth or Wisdom?
- B. Sodom or Separation?

3. God's Choice (Genesis 13:14-18)

1. Abram's Choices (Genesis 13:1-9)

In Genesis 12, Abraham began in Bethel and Ai, and built an altar there and called on the name of the Lord (Genesis 12:8). Then a famine came, and rather than trust in God to provide, he fled to Egypt. It was there that he and Sarai lied to Pharaoh, but even then, God was with them, and blessed them, and gave them much wealth through Pharaoh. So now, as verse 2 says, Abram was very rich. He was already being blessed by God even though Abram has not shown much faith in God. But God is about to test Abram again, only this time, with a family member. In this case, it was Abram's nephew, Lot.

A. Finance or Family?

Considering all of the livestock of both men, the land around Bethel and Ai did not contain enough water and vegetation to feed all the animals. The situation was getting so bad, that the herdsmen were even beginning to quarrel with one another. And when allies quarrel, enemies like the Canaanites and Perizzites take notice. So Abram and Lot realize that rather than fight against one another, it would be better for them to go separate ways. And it is here that Abram faces a choice. God has promised all the land to him. He hasn't actually acquired any of it yet.

“GENESIS 13:14-15
Lift up now your eyes & look from the place where you are,
north, & south, & east, & west,
for all the land which you see,
to you will I give it,
& to your seed Forever”

B. Tight-fisted or Trust God?

Should he be tight-fisted and hold on to what was rightfully his, and give Lot only a little portion, or one of the worst portions of the land? Or should he trust God to provide, not only for himself, but also for Lot? He knows he needs to give Lot some land, but which part? The best part was the Jordan Valley. It was rich and lush and green. There was plenty of water and vegetation. It was be a wise financial decision to keep that part for himself. But Abram is beginning to learn to trust God. He has seen how God has blessed him time and time again. He has seen God provide for him at every turn. So Abram decides to leave the matter in God's hands by letting Lot make the choice of where to live.

2. Lot's Choices (Genesis 13:10-13)

A. Wealth or Wisdom?

Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent even as far as Sodom. But the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinful against the Lord.

And as one bad decision leads to another, Genesis 13:12 reveals the worst decision yet. Though he knew the people of Sodom were wicked and evil, he chose to live near them, rather than separate himself from them.

B. Sodom or Separation?

Lot chose to take his family to a place that was rich and green, but there was a fly in the pudding, for many other people saw the Jordan Valley as a wonderful place to live, and many of them were wicked and sinful. He chose the seductive region. But Lot figured he could protect his family from such evil influences, and so chose to go to the Jordan Valley anyway. He even stayed out of the city. It says he pitched his tent as far as Sodom, but he did not actually move into Sodom — yet. You will often discover that those who ride the fence soon sit on the fence, and then are on the other side of the fence. So don't compromise.

Choices Determines Destinies

“Come out from among them and be separate,” says the Lord. This is something Lot did not do. He chose poorly. He chose wealth over wisdom and Sodom over separation. These choices are very different than the ones Abram made. And we will see the results of their decisions in later chapters. But right here in chapter 14, we see a result for Abram right away. In Genesis 13:14-18, God makes a choice. Or rather, He reiterates a choice He has already made in chapter 12. He once again chooses Abram to receive blessing and honour. God reminds Abram that all the land will eventually be his.

Satan leads many to believe that God will overlook their unfaithfulness in the minor affairs of life; but the Lord shows in his dealings with Jacob that he will in nowise sanction or tolerate evil. All who endeavor to excuse or conceal their sins, and permit them to remain upon the books of Heaven, unconfessed and unforgiven, will be overcome by Satan... Those who delay a preparation for the day of God cannot obtain it in the time of trouble, or at any subsequent time. The case of all such is hopeless.
{Great Controversy, 620.2}

3. God's Choice (Genesis 13:14-18)

This shows that God is pleased with how Abram handled himself in that situation. God has already chosen Abram out of the people of the world to bring forth God's chosen people and eventually, the promised Messiah, but here God reiterates his choice. He reminds Abram of this. And God even adds to the promise. Whereas in chapter 12, the promise was only that land would be given to Abram's descendants, God adds three elements in these verses. First, there is the promise was that Abram would have countless descendants. Second, they would be given all the land Abram could see or set his foot upon. Third, it wouldn't just be a temporary possession, but they would possess the land forever.

“Time on this Earth is short. Probation is closing soon. Preparation to see God face to face by repentance and forsaking of sin needs to be done now.”

–Pastor Ted N. C. Wilson

The results of the choices made!

If Lot had the tropical luxuriance of Sodom, Abraham had the refreshing breeze of the hills, whose soft slopes were sprinkled with stretches of grey olives, and picturesquely mingled groves of pomegranates, figs, apricots, and almonds; while round him spread waving patches of wheat and barley, varied by green gardens and vineyards so famous, that the Jews believed the vine had been first planted by God's own hand on these fertile slopes. His flocks, moreover, had only to wander to the next heights, beyond this quiet retreat, to have before them unlimited upland pastures.

“The world is becoming more and more lawless. Soon great trouble will arise among the nations—trouble that will not cease until Jesus comes.”

God's Judgement on the City - Sodom

In Genesis 17-19 KJB we read ...

“And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;”

– Genesis 18:20 KJB

“I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.” – Genesis 18:21 KJB

God's Judgement on the Cities – Sodomy

The pursuit of pleasure and amusement centres in the cities. Many parents who choose a city home for their children, thinking to give them greater advantages, meet with disappointment, and too late repent their terrible mistake. The cities of today are fast becoming like Sodom and Gomorrah. The many holidays encourage idleness. The exciting sports— theatre-going, horse-racing, gambling, liquor-drinking, and revelling—stimulate every passion to intense activity. The youth are swept away by the popular current.—Christ's Object Lessons, 54 \(1900\). LDE 110.2

O that God's people had a sense of the impending destruction of thousands of cities, now almost given to idolatry.—Evangelism, 29 \(1903\). LDE 111.4
The time is near when large cities will be swept away, and all should be warned of these coming judgments.—Evangelism, 29 \(1910\). LDE 111.5

Assuredly, I say to you, it will become more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah
in the day of judgment than for you.

Country Living – Like Abraham

When to move to the countryside?

Leaving the Cities! Is It Biblical?

- It is not a salvation issue!
- No force or not to condemn!
- Who was the first to talk about the cities?
- 1st mention is Nimrod built the cities?

And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. Out of that land went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city. - Genesis 10:8-12

Jesus admonition to the Christians

Flee to the Countryside:

Luke 21:20-21

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

Time Now to Move From the Cities?

- Take your families away from the cities is my message. {AH 139.3}
- The time has come when, as God opens the way, families should move out of the cities. The children should be taken into the country. The parents should get as suitable a place as their means will allow. Though the dwelling may be small, yet there should be land in connection with it that may be cultivated. {AH 139.4}

Are You Ready and Preparing For What's Coming?

- We are living in a very critical time in earth's history.

- Jesus is very soon to come! Are we seriously thinking and planning for the days ahead of us when the Sunday Law will finally be passed?

Memorise Bible Promises and Hymns

I think of some of the encouraging songs we need to be memorizing, as well as encouraging Bible promises to cheer us on our way during the Sunday Law crisis, when we could be without our song books and Bibles. Songs like:

- “A Shelter in the Time of Storm”
- “Follow, I will Follow Thee, My Lord”
- “He Leadeth Me,”
- “O Let Me Walk with Thee My God,”
- “All the Way My Saviour Leads Me,”
- “A Mighty Fortress is our God.”

We'll be steady in the storm if we're anchored to Christ
the rock.

In You, O Lord, I put my trust. —Psalm 71:1

God will be with you and take care of you

We just need to have faith in God and His promises to see us through the days ahead of us when the Sunday Law is passed and the time comes when we can't buy or sell. Learn promises like:

Psalms 91; Psalms. 46; 1 Peter 5:7; Matthew 6:33; Philippians 4:13, 19; Psalms 27; Isaiah 41:10; Isaiah 41 and 43; Isaiah 33:15, 16, 17; Psalms 20:1, 6, 7; Psalms 121:1–8; Matthew 11:28–30; Isaiah 40:21–31; Psalms 32:8; Joshua 1:9.

“Gluttony and intemperance lie at the foundation of the great moral depravity in our world. Satan is aware of this and he is constantly tempting men and women to indulge the taste at the expense of health and even life itself. Eating, drinking, and dressing are made the aim of life with the world. Just such a state of things existed before the Flood. And this state of dissipation is one of the marked evidences of the soon close of this earth’s history.”

We are fast approaching the close of our probation. Let every soul inquire, How do I stand before God? We know not how soon our names may be taken into the lips of Christ, and our cases be finally decided. What, oh, what will these decisions be! Study – Crises Ahead

You now have an opportunity to attain to the greatest intellectual power through the study of the Word of God. But if you are indolent, and fail to dig deep in the mines of truth, you will not be ready for the crisis that is soon to come upon us.

O that you would realize that each moment is golden. If you live by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God, you will not be found unprepared.

Many are deceiving themselves by thinking that the character will be transformed at the coming of Christ, but there will be no conversion of heart at His appearing.

Our defects of character must here be repented of, and through the grace of Christ we must overcome them while probation shall last. This is the place for fitting up for the family above.

Preparing for the coming Crisis

The time is not far distant when the test will come to every soul. The mark of the beast will be urged upon us. Those who have step by step yielded to worldly demands and conformed to worldly customs will not find it a hard matter to yield to the powers that be, rather than subject themselves to derision, insult, threatened imprisonment, and death. The contest is between the commandments of God and the commandments of men. In this time the gold will be separated from the dross in the church. {Last Day Events, 173.6}

Because this event takes place in the future, there are many opinions about what will happen.

God has given all:

The Power of Choice

An angel with a halo and wings is shown writing in a book with a quill pen. To the right of the angel is a large, ornate golden hourglass. In the background, a red devil's face with horns is visible. The scene is set in a dimly lit room with a book on a desk.
