Numbers – Jesus & Remnant Wilderness Wanderings

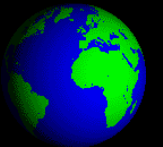

Past > Present > Future

Introduction

Here, we will explore Jesus in the Book of Numbers and discover how, through these hints, truths about our Messiah are revealed. We will see Jesus and the Remnant in the Israelite's wanderings in the wilderness.

The Israelites had just come out of Egypt, walked through the Red Sea, and were led into the wilderness. Their journey through the wilderness to the Promised Land should have taken eleven days, but instead, it took forty years because of their unbelief and disobedience.

Great Lessons from the book of Numbers for the Church Today!

Introduction: Be Careful Not To Fall!

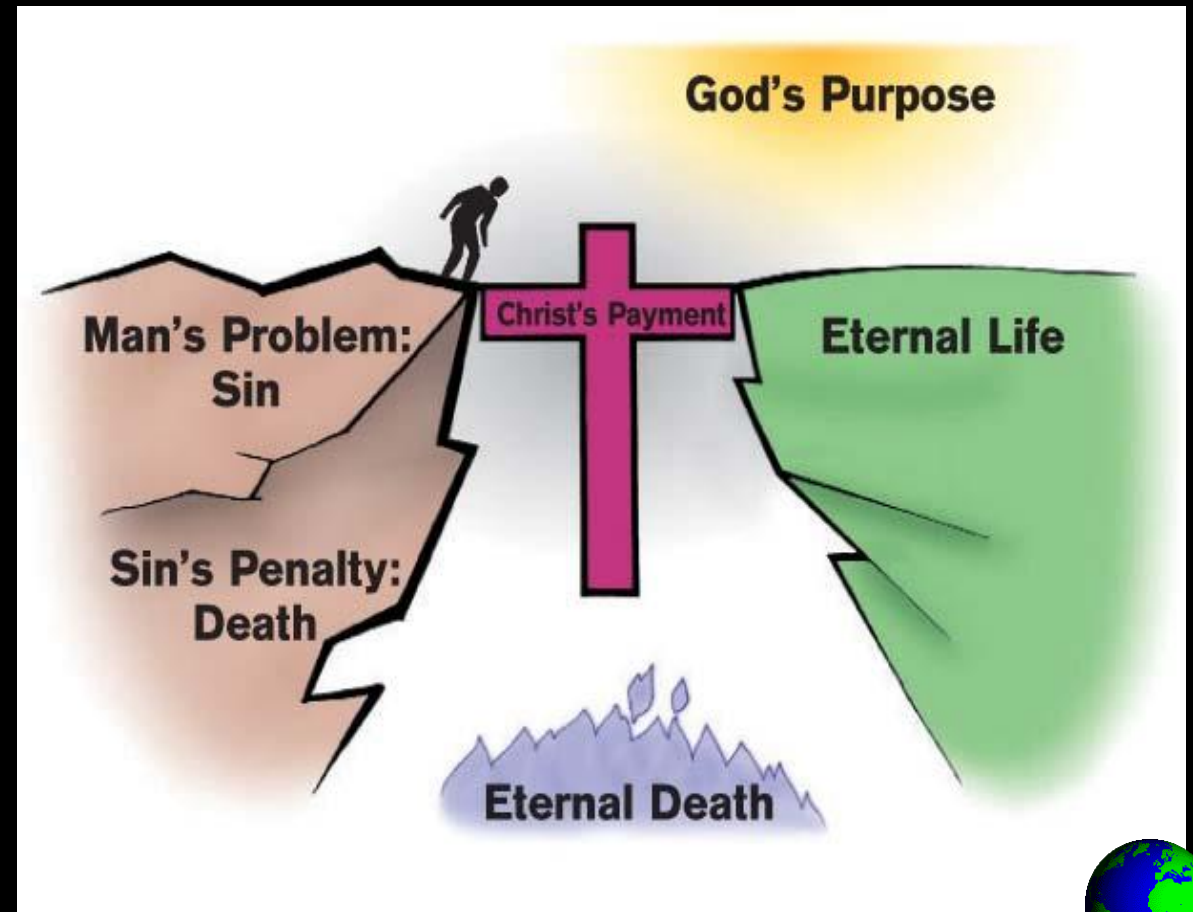

Numbers underscores the faithfulness of God. Despite Israel's failures, God was faithful to His promise to Abraham and his descendants!

Their experience serves as an example of warning for Christians - 1 Corinthians 10:1-13 & Hebrews 3:7-4:11.

Have you ever fallen?

It is easy to do if we are not careful. Just as we may fall physically, so we may fall spiritually (Galatians 5:4; Hebrews 6:4-6; 10:26-31; 2 Peter 2:1-2, 20-22).

The lesson is clear: Be careful not to fall!

Remnant in the book of Numbers (cont'd)

Chapter 2: Keep God in the centre of your Life!

Conclusion

Numbers shows the grace and mercy of God. Despite all their rebellions, He still honoured His promises to Israel and did not exact the full punishment on Israel that was His right as their God. God's greatest desire for Israel was for them to know Him and to bless them. God is seen as a father who desires the best for his children, who is also willing to teach and discipline them in order to strengthen their character and to keep them from sinning, which destroys lives. The same goes to the all in this final generation as well.

God has given all:

An angel with a halo is shown from the chest up, wearing a white robe and writing on a scroll with a quill. To the right of the angel is a large, ornate golden hourglass. In the background, a red devil's face with horns and a mischievous grin is visible. The scene is set against a dark background with some light rays.
