Joshua - Jesus & Remnant: Faith & Victory

Past > Present > Future

Introduction

The Book of Joshua records Israel's history from Moses's death to the time of the Judges. It is the first of twelve historical books of the Old Testament. In Numbers, we saw the Israelites fail because of unbelief. In contrast, in Joshua, the Israelites see victory due to their faith.

Joshua succeeded in leading the Israelites into the Promised Land aided by a miracle-working God. God parted the Jordan River so the Israelites could cross on dry land. So, as the Exodus had begun with a miracle, it also ended with a miracle (Joshua 3:14-17). In contrast, where Moses failed to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land due to their unbelief, Joshua succeeded because of their faith.

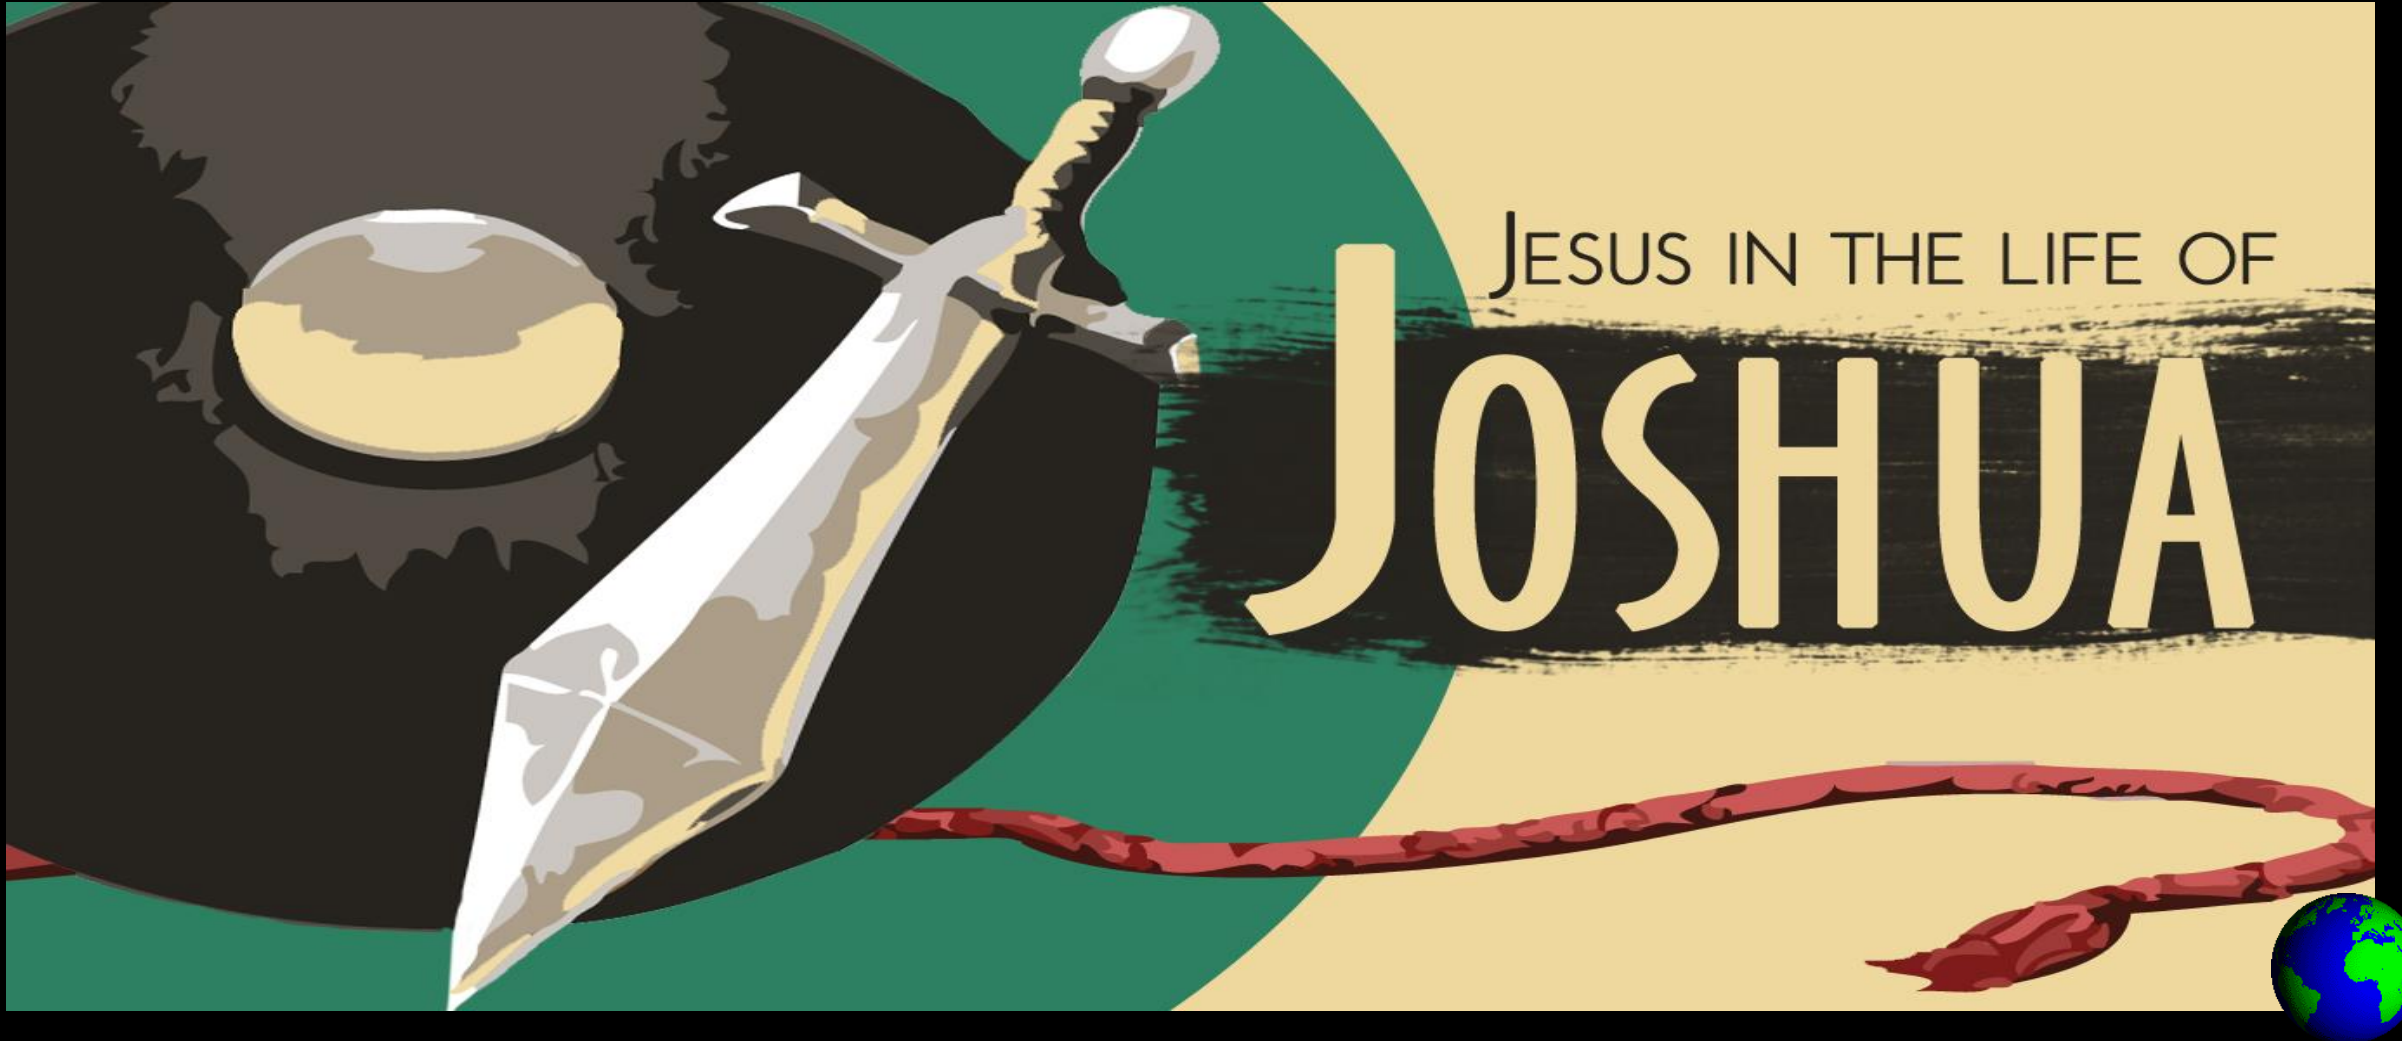

Introduction (cont'd)

The Israelites, led by Joshua, overcame their enemies and occupied the Promised Land. God, throughout the book of Joshua, shows the Israelites their victory before they receive it (Joshua 6:2, Joshua 8:1, Joshua 10:8). When they believed and obeyed God, they defeated their enemies. But when they didn't believe and obey God, they suffered defeat. Their faith and obedience determined their victory. The relationship between faith and obedience and unbelief and disobedience is illustrated at Jericho and then again in Ai.

4. The Importance of Covenant and Community.
5. Anticipating the Ultimate Promised Land.

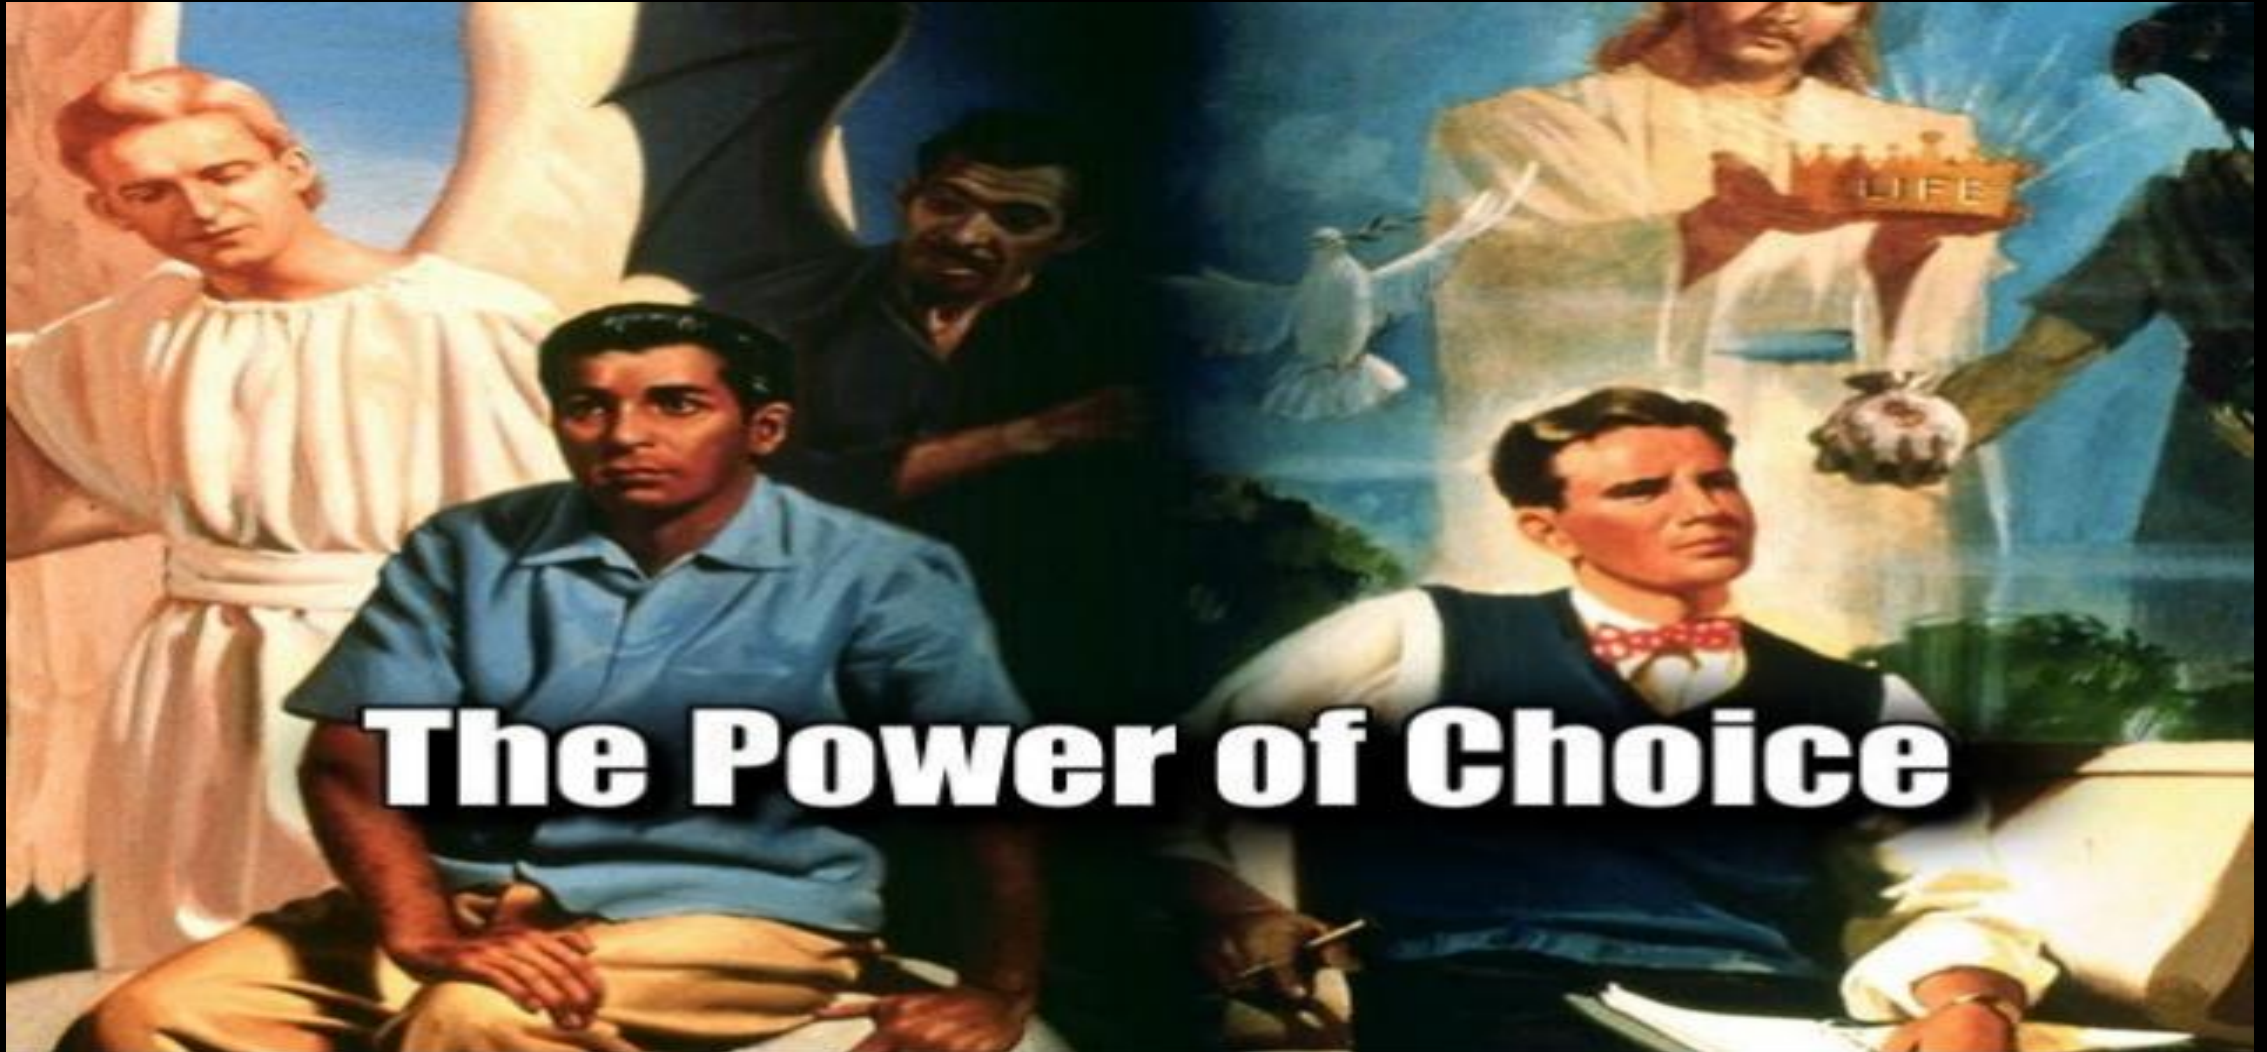

Conclusion

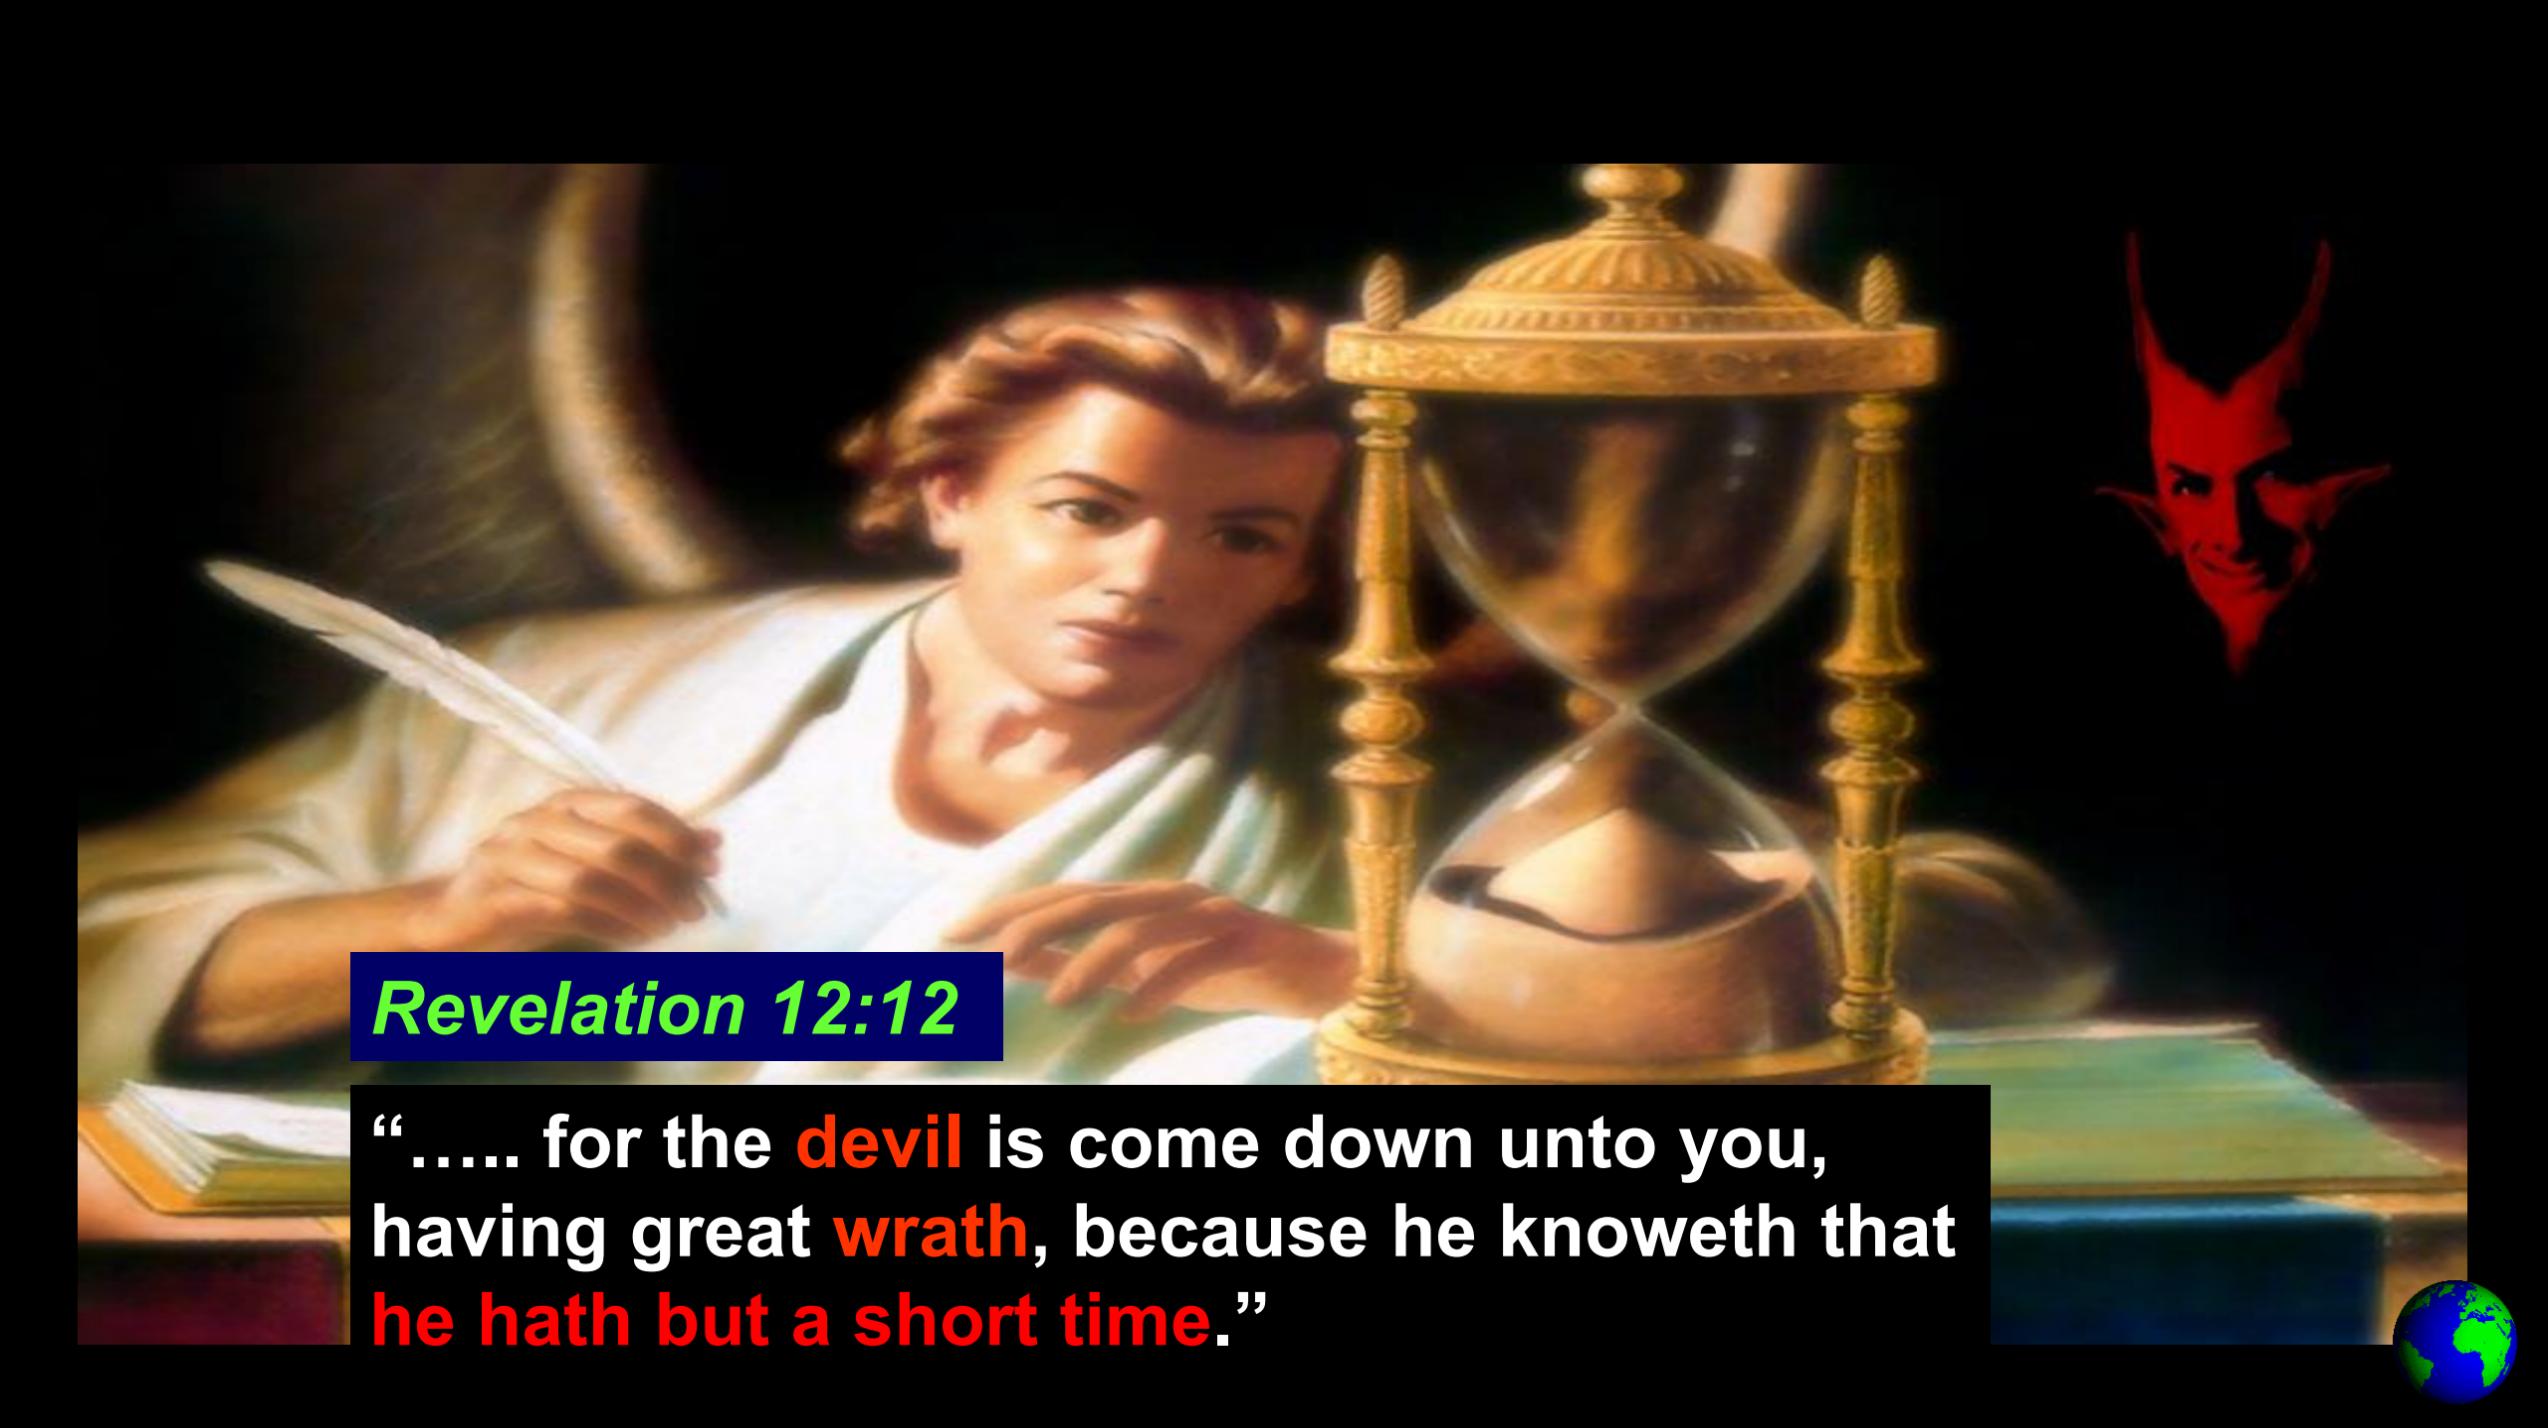

Consider the book of Numbers as Israel's 40-year practice session in the desert and Joshua as their 7-year game in the land of Canaan. Numbers recorded dozens of mistakes as Israel tried to get ready; Joshua records victory after victory in Canaan. This is a story of strength and courage, a tale of faith and obedience amidst adversity.

Joshua challenges everyone who has come to trust God to dare to live for him. In essence, the Book of Joshua provides a rich tapestry of lessons that resonate deeply with the Remnant, encouraging believers to live lives of faith, courage, obedience, and dependence on God as they journey towards their ultimate heavenly home.

God has given all:

An angel with a halo is shown from the chest up, wearing a white robe and writing on a scroll with a quill. To the right of the angel is a large, ornate golden hourglass. In the background, a red devil's face with horns and a mischievous grin is visible. The scene is set against a dark background with some light rays.

Revelation 12:12

“..... for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”
