Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days. Revelation 12:6

1 prophetic day = 1 literal year

See Numbers 14:34; Ezekiel 4:5, 6

This 1,260-day time period is referred to seven times in the Bible's prophecies.

Three times as a “time, times, and half a time”
twice as 42 months
twice as 1,260 days

Based on the 30-day calendar used by the Jews, these time periods are all the same amount of time:
3-1/2 years = 42 months = 1,260 days.

Rise of the Sea Beast - Papacy

A mosaic depicting several figures, likely emperors or popes, with halos and crowns. The central figure is Emperor Justinian, wearing a crown and a halo. To his right, another figure is labeled 'MAXIM'. The mosaic is made of small tiles in various colors, including gold, blue, and red.

Referring to the year A.D. 538, Gunner (1851) writes, “in that year the Ostrogoths were overthrown by Belesarius, the Greek general under Justinian, for the express purpose of establishing the Papal church, and of carrying into effect the ‘Justinian Code of Laws,’ which invested the Pope with supreme authority, and constituted him head of the Eastern churches, with power to punish and pardon at will, whomsoever he might choose.” (p. 108)

The Rise of the Sea Beast - Papacy

- When the Western Roman Empire fell in 476, the Catholic Church competed with Arian Christians for the conversion of the barbarian tribes and quickly became the dominant form of Christianity.
- Monastic communities were centres for learning and preservation of classical culture
- Once the cultural and political boundaries of Rome were weakened, Catholicism spread throughout Europe to the Irish, English, Franks, and Goths.

Pope Pius IX (1846-1878)

Fall of the Papal States in 1870

The great antagonist of President Lincoln, Pius IX, declared himself infallible on July 18, 1870.

A few months later the French soldiers were pulled out of Rome, Italian patriots occupied the city, and the Papal States were gone.

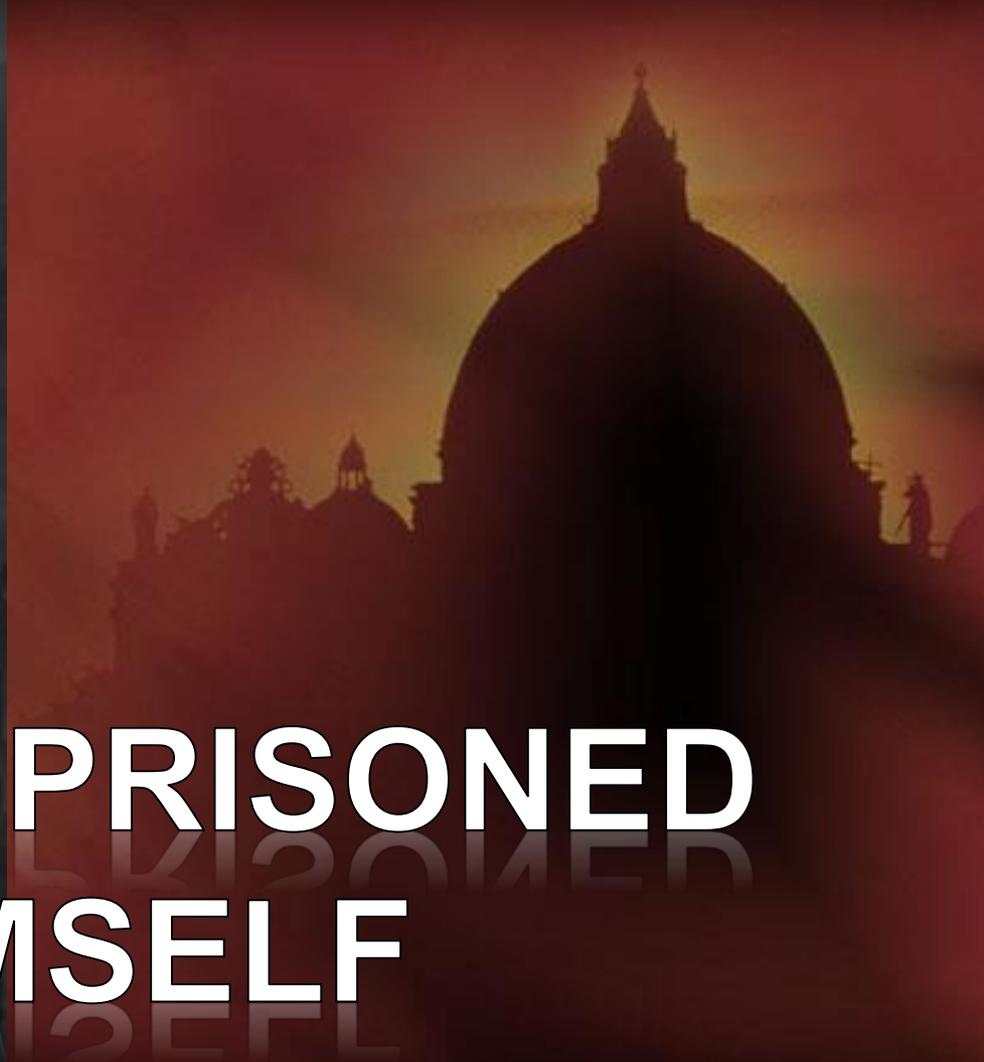

With the fall of the Papal States in 1870, Rome changed her tactics. She became the "friend" of the triumphant United States.

The Catholic Church grew through immigration, especially from Europe (Germany and Ireland at first, and in 1890-1914 from Italy, Poland and Eastern Europe.) -

Roman emperor bows to Pope

The term Walk to Canossa refers to the trek of Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV from Speyer to Canossa Castle in Emilia Romagna to obtain the revocation of the excommunication imposed on him by the Pope Gregory VII. He was forced to humiliate himself on his knees waiting for three days and three nights, before the entrance gate of the castle, while a blizzard raged in 28th January 1077. Papal Supremacy

The little horn really corresponds with the beast rising from the sea:

The little horn (Daniel 7)

Speaks great things (verses 8 and 20)

Blasphemes against God (verse 25)

Reigns during 1260 years (verse 25)
($3\frac{1}{2}$ times = $3\frac{1}{2} \times 360 = 1260$ years)

Makes war against saints (verses 21 and 25)

Overcomes the saints (verse 25)

The beast rising from the sea (Revelation 13)

Speaks great things (verse 5)

Blasphemes against God (verses 5 and 6)

Reigns during 1260 years (verse 5)
(42 months = $42 \times 30 = 1260$ years)

Makes war against saints (verse 7)

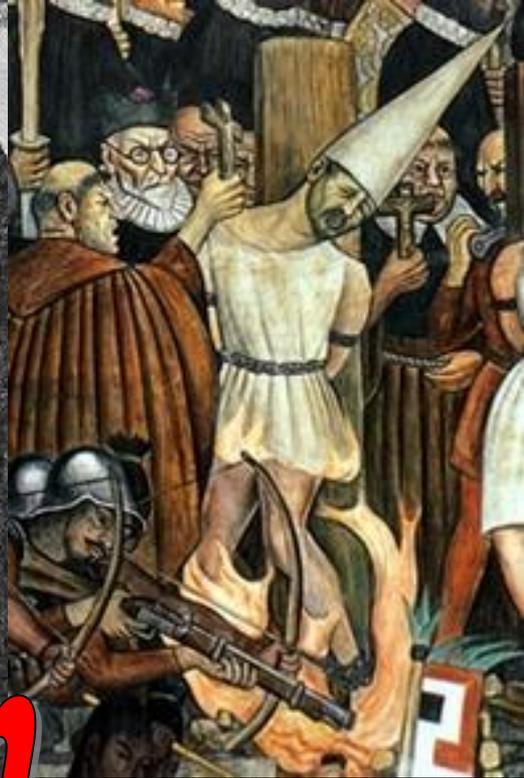

Overcomes the saints (verse 7)

⁷ And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

⁸ And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. – Revelation 13:7-8

Say hello to a bigger EU

Europe has just had its biggest party in a century, but could India be left with the hangover? After a long season of discontent and discord, spring has come to Europe and the continent is whole again almost. A May Day like no other ushered in the largest ever expansion of the 46-year-old European commercial community. History buffs are swooning. The number-crunchers are in transports. India is indifferent about what it thinks to be a never-ending, complex and wearisome European story. But that could change sooner than we imagine.

Europe has just had its biggest party in a century, but could India be left with one hangover? After a long season of discontent and discord, spring has come to Europe and the continent is whole again almost. A May day like no other ushered in the largest ever expansion of the 46-year-old European commercial community. History buffs are swooning. The number-crunchers are in transports. For now, India is indifferent about what it thinks to be a never-ending, complex and enigmatic European story. But that could change sooner than we imagine.

HISTORY OF U.S. PRESIDENT-POPE MEETINGS

1919

Woodrow Wilson becomes the first sitting U.S. president to meet a pope. After the end of WWI he spent nine months in Europe, including a stop in Rome, where he met Pope Benedict XV.

1959

Four decades after that first meeting, Dwight D. Eisenhower was received in the Vatican by Pope John XXIII on Dec. 6.

1963

John F. Kennedy, the first Catholic president of the United States, met with Pope Paul VI a day after the papal coronation. Kennedy was originally scheduled to meet John XXIII, but he died of lung cancer shortly before their appointment.

1979

With John Paul's II first visit to the United States, Jimmy Carter became the second president to greet a pope on U.S. soil, but the first to welcome the head of the Catholic Church into the White House.

1982

Ronald Reagan visited John Paul II in Rome on June 7. The two would see each other four times in five years. They had a very palpable enemy in common: The Soviet empire.

1993

Bill Clinton met with John Paul II for the first time. The Clinton administration would later clash with the Vatican on abortion and war. During their first meeting, in Denver's airport, the pope addressed the crowd and delivered a clearly pro-life message.

2009

Barack Obama was received by Pope Benedict XVI in the Vatican. The German pontiff used their first-ever meeting to deliver a strong pro-life message, even pointedly offering him a copy of a recent Vatican document on bioethics.

2017

May 24, President Donald Trump is scheduled to meet Pope Francis in the Vatican.

2004

During their third meeting, President George W. Bush presented John Paul II with the Presidential Medal of Freedom. Accepting the honor, the pope delivered a strong condemnation of the Iraqi war.

2015

During his first-ever visit to the United States, Pope Francis was received by Obama in the White House. He called for American leadership to combat climate change, embrace immigrants and care for the poor. He also prodded the White House on religious liberty, and insisted pro-life and family causes were at the center of his visit.

HEARING GOOD

"He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints." - Revelation 13:10

Rome threw the people of God into prisons, she sent armies with swords to kill them and drove them into hidden places of the earth; then in 1798, armies were sent against her and a military power threw the pope into prison. In the upheavals during the French Revolution, the Roman priests and leaders were slaughtered by the people, just as formerly the church had slaughtered God's children.

French Revolution (1787 - 1799)

Catholic Priests, Nuns & Monks were killed

French Revolution (1787 - 1799)

Thousands of priests, monks, and nuns now had to choose. The clergy was then split into juring priests (those who took the oath) and non-juring or refractory priests (those who refused). Both factions could face persecution, as communities with strong revolutionary sentiments would beat, stone, or even kill non-juring priests, while in more religiously traditional communities juring priests could face similar assaults. -

AUTHOR OF THE JESUITS AND THE FINAL CONCLAVE

Dr. Malachi Martin

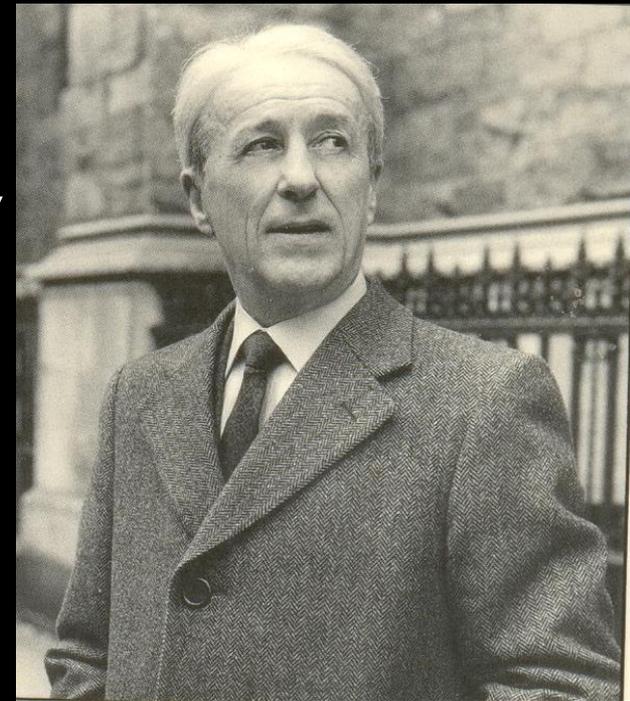

“Willing or not, ready or not, we are all involved in a three-way global competition. Most of us are not Competitors, however. We are the stakes. For the Competition is about who will establish the first One-world system of government that has ever existed in the society of nations.”

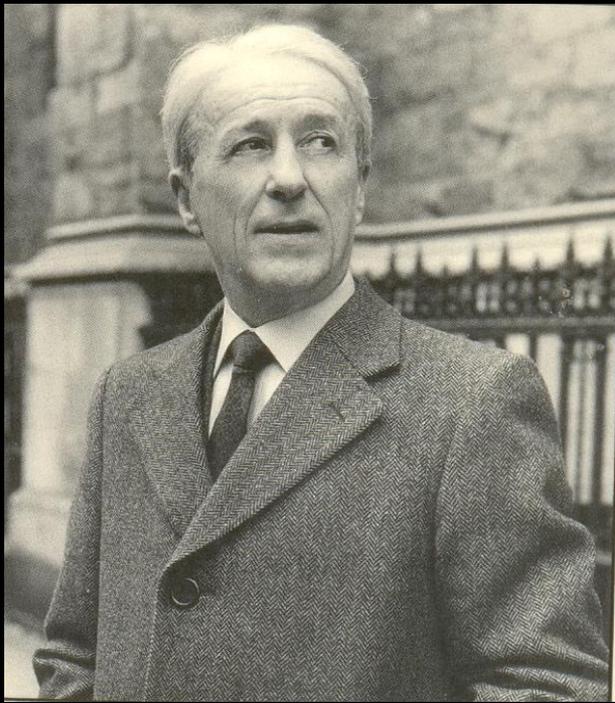

“It is about who will hold and wield the dual power of authority and control over each of us as individuals and over all of us together as a community; over the entire six billion people expected by demographers to inhabit the earth by early in the third millennium.”

“The competition is all-out because, Now that it has started, there is no Way it can be reversed or called off.”

“No holds are barred because, once the competition has been decided, the world and all that’s in it – our way of life as individuals and as citizens of the nations; our families and our jobs; our trade and commerce and money; our educational systems and our religions and our cultures; even the badges of our national identity, which most of us have always taken for granted – all will have been powerfully and radically altered for ever. No one can be exempted from its effects. No sector of our lives will remain untouched.”

“...those of us who are under seventy Will see at least the basic structures of the new world government installed. Those of us under forty will surely live under its legislative, executive and judiciary authority and control.”

“Speak about this new world order not as something around a distant corner of time, but as something that is imminent.”

- Dr. Malachi Martin, Keys of This Blood, Pages 15, 16 - 1990
